

Perl registration utility for VI Client Plug-ins

The attached script allows you to register a plug-in with VirtualCenter using the VI Perl Toolkit.

The script allows you to list, register and unregister plug-ins.

After registering a plug-in, log out of the VI Client (if you are logged into VirtualCenter) and log back in, and you should see your plug-in registered under the Plugins tab.