Ah, Sir Richard, please pack your wand up and send it back to Hogwarts for Dumbledore to issue to the next wizard, now that you have been en-nobled, please report to the Armory to receive your Armour and without delay to the stables for your Charger.

PS we apologise about the state of the Chalis as the previous owner (TexiWill) was not very careful with it 😊

Would've been a wasted effort, we all know that Richard is going to fill up his cup with beer and fall down many times just putting that many more dents into it.... I feel bad for the next person that gets Richards cup
