Dear All,

The Steering Committee are pleased to announce the next UK London VMware User Group meeting, kindly sponsored by DynamicOps, to be held on Thursday 14th May 2009. We hope to see you at the meeting, and afterwards for a drink or two.

Our meeting will be held at the Capital Suite, London Chamber of Commerce and Industry, 33 Queen Street, London EC4R 1AP, +44 (0)20 7248 4444. The nearest tube station is Mansion House, location information is available here.

Reception is from 1230 for a prompt 1pm start, to finish around 5pm. Our agenda is not final at the moment, but looks something like this:

1100 - 1200 (Optional) Powershell workshop - Alan Renouf

12:30 – 13:00 Arrive & Refreshments

13:00 – 13:15 Welcome & News

13:20 – 14:05 Sponsor Presentation - DynamicOps

14:10 – 14:55 Session 2

15:00 – 15:20 Refreshments Break

15:25 – 16:00 Session 3

16:05 – 16:45 Session 4

16:45 – 17:00 Close

17:00 – Pub

The eagle-eyed among you will have noticed the enigmatically-titled Sessions 1, 2 and 3. For these we're hoping to arrange any/all of:

- ESX in the DMZ and/or
- VMware and Security
- vSphere preview screening
- Top 10 Support Issues (and fixes!)
- Mr Steve Chambers (yorkie) Senior Architect at VMware regaling us with a worthwhile topic or two
- Case Study - if you have a tale worth telling about your implementation of VMware, please contact me

To register your interest in attending, please reply with up to two named attendees from your organisation to alaricdavies at yahoo dot com. If you do not receive a confirmation mail from us, please don't just turn up since we will not be able to admit you to the meeting. Please separately mention if you intend attending Alan's Powershell workshop at 1100. Content from the meetings will continue to be uploaded to <http://public.box.net/londonug>, NDA permitting.

Sincerely, and with regards,

The UKLVMUG Steering Committee
